“ For three years, I worked for Gulf Coast Social Services as Ms. Maggie's caregiver. She was a loving warm delightful lady to work for. In the beginning of my journey with her, she would sit at the dining room table and flip through the pages of her bible. She would begin coping the text of the bible into her notebook. One day, I asked her why does she copy the text of the bible scriptures. She replied, "this is the way that I communicate with God." So, I asked her what did her and God communicate about. She said, "I tell God that I want to walk again." I told her that someday she would walk the streets of gold in heaven. She began smiling from ear to ear. Today, my heart is deeply saden over the untimely death and passing of my dear friend in Christ, Ms. Maggie. She was more that just my client. One day, she declared to me that she was my grandmother and I was her granddaughter. Therefore, in three years we had become family. Love brought us together. I took care of her and she took care of me. I will never forget her and look forward to someday seeing her walk those great streets of gold in heaven. She is sadly missed.

May you rest in peace; I will forever love you Maggie,

“ So sorry to hear about this. I called her sister. She had a smile all the time. I use to go spend a week with her when I was a little girl, every summer. I loved her. She always called me Jeridine instead of Geraldine. She was a sweetheart. I regret not seeing her as we got older. Fly high sister love you.
